33 | CONTENT CREATOR | GALWAY, IE

DESCRIPTION

Sarah is a self employed creative who is always looking for outlets for her work. She creates content to refine her skills, and to draw attention to her upcoming release.

Sarah cares about quality above all, and is frustrated with the current devaluing of Irish culture and music worldwide. She wants to contribute to something authentic, which has high production standards.

"I want my contribution to Irish music to be authentic. I need to represent my voice effectively, and have high production standards."
